1	This is great Enid! Thanks!
2	Had to leave at noon, but morning was great!
3	Presenters knowledge excelled [some "presentation" lacking enthusiasm. More prof dev - Yes, but there just isn't enough time. Online tutorial - Yes, if time permitted. Glad to receive handouts - will be very useful to be able to search for things back at our library.
4	Presenters knowledge - High [but mixed]. The Powerpoint presentations were mixed. Some were useless. The live searches were useful - the bibliographies, great.
5	Thought this workshop was very helpful. Lots of info to give students and other patrons the info they need.
6	Access to computer would have been nice during break in order to explore some of the websites. Enjoyed the workshop!
7	Would others benefit? Every public library should have a person trained [1 or more]. 1 - A hardcopy of the handouts should be provided to each KY public library. These handouts are invaluable. 2 - Directions to CPE approaching from the south of Frankfort would be nice. CPE facilities sign is hard to see if you've never been here. 3 - This info would be very useful for the LCC online course on online reference that Jane Minder teaches. 4 - I couldn't possibly rate this day's training any higher. I would just encourage any reasonable ways this info can be made available to as many public and school libraries as possible. The presenters and the results of their efforts are a huge GOLDmine of online reference info. Today's sessions was like taking a drink from a firehose. Can't wait to get home and start digesting all of it.
8	Registration for 8:30am on is beneficial for out-of-town participants. Hands-on would also have been good.
9	Great resources/service!
10	Facilities were comfortable - particularly impressed with the ladies room! Would like to have table surface instead of having to take notes in my lap. Thanks for the cookies.
11	Thanks for making this happen. You brought a lot of expertise to one location. Hands on is always better for me. Please post handouts online with hot links. "Smaller bites" at a time with computer lab setting for other sessions. Sharing with patrons okay?
12	Very informative and helpful.
13	Very informative. Liked the short sessions. Breaks should have been shorter.
14	Perhaps a workshop with lab-time would be beneficial.
15	This was great!!! Thanks.
16	Recommend a minimum font size [28?] for Powerpoint handouts or print 2 per page. Set browser text size to larger font. In the second row, I couldn't reach much of what was presented.
17	Info on changes in gov info, e.g. what's now withheld and why - example: firestone info not immediately available after danger was known.
18	Maybe at another session, go over fewer and get into them more.
19	The info was great! However, the Powerpoint style handouts are hard or impossible to read rendering them worthless. A legible list of websites plus a brief description of their worth would be a good handout. Online option would be nice. Thanks.
20	Great job! Very useful!
21	Hands on would be nice.
22	Wonderful workshop. Very informative and useful. Thank you!
23	Ongoing program with time for questions. Thanks.
24	Thanks so much! I was impressed with the agenda of presenting so many topics within such a short time.
25	Very good program. Almost too much. Maybe less emphasis on the quantity of sites and more on finding and using the information. More workshops!
26	Shorter breaks and question period at end of a.m. and p.m. sessions would probably work better.
27	A workshop has to be VERY good for me to rate it a "5," "very good." This was an informative, well-presented, excellently paced day. Each presenter was prepared, organized. Overall, VERY organized. Thank you for sharing!

- 28 The seating was not comfortable. The post in the center was a distraction. I think this was a great idea. Authorization of websites always helps. What progress has been made since 1980. Gov Docs was where I started and my heart has stayed there. I will work with these list to give our patrons some recognized authentic sources. Thanks!
- 29 Excellent workshop! The handouts alone were well worth the trip. I enjoyed interacting with other gov doc librarians. Thanks for hosting a wonderful workshop.
- 30 Would like hands-on experience.
